- The image shows a redacted presentation slide. At the top is a solid red horizontal bar. Below it, the main content area is mostly white but contains a single bullet point that has been redacted with a large black rectangular box. To the right of this box, the text "o" is visible. Below the bullet point, there are two more lines of text, each preceded by a redacted box and the letter "o". The first line of text is partially visible as "o" followed by a series of redacted boxes. The second line of text is also partially visible as "o" followed by a series of redacted boxes. At the bottom of the slide is a red horizontal bar containing the number "39" on the left and the "lenovo" logo on the right.
